

Capt. Alfred "Al" Haynes

Teamwork in Crisis The Story of Flight 232

This is a rare opportunity to hear the inspiring account of the flight crew and emergency services teamwork that saved 184 lives during the United Airlines Flight 232 airline crash MCI in Sioux City, Iowa on July 19, 1989.

Presented by the pilot that lived it!

Wednesday
September 5, 2007 7:00PM

To be held at:

Waterford-Halfmoon High School – 125 Middletown Road, Waterford, NY.

Please contact Clifton Park & Halfmoon Emergency Corps at
(518) 371-3880 or CPHM-Training@nycap.rr.com for more information

Directions:

Exit 8A off I-87 → East on Grooms Rd. → Cross Rt.9 → continue East on Guideboard Rd. which turns into Middletown Rd. → continue past the Halfmoon FD to the High School on your Left.

-OR-

Highway 787 North into Cohoes → Turn Right onto Saratoga Ave (Rt.32) → follow over the Erie Canal bridge → turn Left at 6th St. which turns into Middletown Rd. → continue past St. Joseph's Cemetery to the High School on your Right.

REMO Approved for 2 hrs CME

preview at: <http://www.aviationspeakers.com/Speakers/alfred-haynes.php>